Cooke & Mason plc

Cooke & Mason plc was founded over 35 years ago and has grown to become one of the UK's leading commercial insurance brokers. Our success is built on our commitment to ensure that the customer comes first.

In 2000, we established our health and safety division, Crown House (www.crown-house.co.uk), which is now part of our associate company Sigerson Associates Ltd, a specialist health and safety consultancy, to address the never-ending and onerous health and safety needs of our customers.

The award winning Crown House Health & Safety provide a range of specialist services including training courses accredited by the Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) and The Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH).

We joined Brokerbilty in 2007, an alliance of like-minded, independent, regional brokers placing over £450m of premium. In 2008, we acquired the long-established Lincolnshire insurance broker, Stephenson's Insurance Services.

In our own right we are one of the Top 75 Independent Insurance Intermediaries in the UK, employing over 100 staff.

Cooke & Mason plc know that every business is unique in how it operates and so we design tailored solutions to satisfy your individual needs.
